EXPERIENCE THE 2024 CPKC WOMEN'S OPEN

Golf Canada, together with CPKC and the LPGA Tour, invite you, your clients, staff, friends and family to enjoy an unparalleled entertainment experience at the 2024 CPKC Women's Open. From the opening tee shot until the final putt drops, the CPKC Women's Open will captivate your guests through a premium entertainment experience. In 2018, Henderson became the first Canadian in 45 years to win our National Women's Open – don't miss the opportunity to see her chase history again at Earl Grey in 2024.

One of Canada's premier sporting events, our National Women's Open Championship is considered by LPGA Tour players a must-attend event and is broadcast to audiences around the globe. A snapshot of global stars whose names are etched on the CPKC Women's Open trophy include Canadian superstar Brooke Henderson and defending champions Megan Khang, Paula Reto, Annika Sorenstam, Karrie Webb, Juli Inkster, Cristie Kerr, Lorena Ochoa, Suzann Pettersen, Michelle Wie West, Brittany Lincicome, Lydia Ko, and So-Yeon Ryu.

THE BEST OF THE BEST

The CPKC Women's Open attracts one of the strongest fields on the LPGA Tour. In 2023, nine of the top 10 in the Rolex Women's World Golf Rankings competed for Canada's National Women's Open Championship.

THE PLAYERS...

The Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) is one of the longest-running women's professional sports associations in the world. Founded in 1950, the organization has grown from its roots as a playing tour into a nonprofit organization involved in every facet of golf. The LPGA Tour is an exciting global sports property and one of the premier women's professional sports organizations in the world.

Headquartered in Daytona Beach, Florida, the LPGA Tour maintains a strong focus on charity through its tournaments, its grassroots junior and women's programs and its LPGA Foundation.

SKYBOXES

The Skyboxes on the 18th green are the best venue to celebrate the history and heritage of Canada's National Women's Open Championship. The Skyboxes provide premium amenities, fantastic views, and unparalleled access to see the championship unfold.

CANADA'S STORIED HISTORY ON DISPLAY

The Skybox will showcase many of the event's historic moments and celebrate our iconic champions including three-time winner Lydia Ko who won back-to-back titles as an amateur in 2012 and 2013.

THE LASTING LEGACY...

In 2023, the largest donation in the history of the CPKC Women's Open was made with a $2.9 million cheque presented to the B.C. Children's Hospital Foundation in Vancouver with an additional $580,000 local donation to Royal Inland Hospital (RIT) Foundation.

In addition to the almost $3.5 million raised during the 2023 CPKC Women's Open in Vancouver, the CPKC Has Heart campaign has left a lasting impact in all communities the CPKC Women's Open has been played in support of children's heart health:

2014 London ($1.3 million)
2015 Vancouver ($1.2 million)
2016 Calgary ($2 million)
2017 Ottawa ($2 million)
2018 Regina ($2 million)
2019 Aurora ($2.45 million)
2020 Vancouver ($3.1 million)
2022 Ottawa ($3 million)
2023 Vancouver ($3.48 million)

In 2024, CPKC in partnership with Golf Canada, will continue its history of making a substantial donation to the host community through its CPKC Has Heart community investment program. Since CPKC's title sponsorship of the CPKC Women's Open began, more than $19 million has been raised to support children's heart health in communities across Canada.
